You've created an amazing product. It's versatility is unrivaled amongst all the massage tools I've used in the past. I hope to see the claw become a big success in the near future.

PS. The Claw would be a great name should you decide to change it as it is so much more than a tool for the QL!

I had back surgery in 2018 and have really, no joke tried EVERYTHING. As many people do, I was willing to try something new, just to get rid if the pain. Well... I am SO GLAD I bought this. After countless visits to pain doctors, facet joint shots, epidurals, pilates, chiropractic treatments, acupuncture , PT- this has relieved so much of my pain. The only thing I regret, is not trying it sooner. You will NOT be disappointed

So, whether you need back pain relief for:

Yourself

Your Partner

Or Both
